Release Notes

VERSION NOTES IZYTRONIQ
VERSION 04.05 (SP1) (QF1/2)

1 Version

1.1 V 04.05 (SP1) (QF1)

News

- Reciprocal tree marking was deactivated by default. This function is only recommended for small amounts of data and can be activated in the personal settings
- Extended search functions "Selection list" are deactivated by default. This function is only recommended for small amounts of data and can be activated in the personal settings
  - This limits the filters that are active by default
- Communication with PROFTEST improved.
- Communication with SECUTEST improved.

Improvements

- Further selection options integrated in the new filters
- When creating new objects, the ID can be used as a description.

Bug Fixes

- Improved role and rights management in IZYTRONIQ
- A progress bar is displayed when creating multiple logs
- Filtering of the date range during log creation has been improved
- Timouts during communication with the SECUTEST fixed
- Dialog "New element" adapted to the new functions
- Incorrect multiple location assignment has been removed
- Measured value table in Push-Print mode has been revised
- Updating the table after location allocation has been revised
- No empty database is played into the SECUTEST

1.2 Version V 04.05 (SP1) (QF2)

Bug fixes

- Red marked ID and name and error message "Object reference was not created on object instance" fixed
- Collective report generation for stationary objects possible again
- Object with same key has already been added has been solved
- Selection in recycle bin marked wrong record fixed
- Fixed deadlock when loading the tree
- Crash when opening the recycle bin when user no longer exists solved [Cloud]

Activities

- An update of the client installation and the server installation must be performed